

Behind the scenes at Polesden Lacey, Bookham

Wednesday 22nd February 2023 – start time 10.15 – Independent travel

Max 30 members on this visit

Join us for an exclusive visit to Polesden Lacey where we will be given a talk by the General Manager, Katherine Mills whilst enjoying a cup of tea or coffee. We will then be taken around the house to see areas not normally open to the public, and view artefacts not normally on display.

Travel will be independent and we will meet in the covered area by the coffee shop/toilets at 10.15. Admission charge to the property will apply for non National Trust Members. Please pay or show your NT membership card at the main visitor reception as we enter.

In addition to the entrance fee (if applicable), the cost for the morning visit will be £10. This covers tea/coffee on arrival in the Copper Beech room within the house where Katherine will give her talk and also our donation to a special PL project.

The Polesden Lacey Textile team are being asked to recreate Mrs Greville's outfit from her fabulous honeymoon portrait. The painting is going to be sent off for conservation and the plan is to bring the portrait to life on its return. Our donation will help to purchase the fabric etc for the textile team.
