

Longford Castle Nr Salisbury – Thursday 20th July 2023

(minimum 26 members and maximum 30)

Having been on the waiting list for some years we have been very fortunate in being offered a special interest morning tour of Longford Castle, the home of The Earl of Radnor. Longford Castle is renowned for its collections including works by Holbein, Poussin, Gainsborough and Reynolds along with oriental porcelain, Brussels tapestries and exceptional furniture.

Accessibility: The ground floor rooms are spacious and can accommodate visitors with rollators or other walking aids. There is a short flight of stairs up to the first floor galleries – the treads are narrow. If anyone feels they cannot manage this on the day, a guide will stay behind with them on the ground floor.

After the tour we will have a Ploughman's Buffet (included in the cost) at the nearby Radnor Arms before returning to Leatherhead.

Toilets facilities are available at Longford but there are no facilities for morning coffee. However, we will be able to stop off very briefly at the Popham service station en-route for comfort break and to grab a takeaway drink. The takeaway MUST have a lid on to avoid accidents to yourself on the coach. We will be very short of time so speed is of the essence at the service station.

COST £64 (includes coach, admission, guided tour, lunch and gratuities).

08.15	Depart from Leatherhead Leisure Centre
10.30 (approx)	Arrive Longford Castle for private tour
12.45	Leave Longford Castle for lunch at Radnor Arms
15.00 (approx)	Depart for Leatherhead
